The good News is against this background the Direct Sales Home Based Business Industry is EXPLODING as more and more people look for ways to supplement or replace their traditional earning options!

$tiforp™ ~ Direct Sales Industry Facts.

- The Network Marketing/Direct Sales Industry has come of age and is at last is gaining mainstream recognition!

- Billionaires are purchasing MLM Companies and the serious mainstream Investment Community are starting to take this business model more seriously and recognising the investment opportunities.
- There are estimated to be over 200 Million people worldwide operating a network marketing / Direct Sales home base business as more people recognise the potential for average people to do well.
